

TO COUNTY OFFICERS.

Bear in mind that we make all kinds of Blank Books, Court Records, Tax Books, Assessor's Books, and everything needed in the offices of the different Clerks; also, that we make them as good as they can be made anywhere East or West, and at prices as low as anybody will make them and furnish good material. Send us your orders, and we guarantee satisfaction in every respect.

THE CHRONICLE COMPANY.

The walls of partition have been torn down; the lines of division have been wiped out; and the altar of reconciliation is set up.

The Democrats always carry the country in off years.

And the Republicans always carry the country in Presidential years.

And that is what keeps the Democrats always so mad.

REPUBLICANS of the 2nd District! We propose to keep our face to the future. We propose to ignore the past two years.

And now let everybody second the motion.

Then it will be unanimous—and unanimity is a winning card.

The transfer of the CHRONICLE to the new Company was not consummated until about 3:30 p. m. yesterday. The result was that we had hardly time to get the reins in our hands before the team began to move.

This will account for any shortcoming in this issue.

CHATTANOOGA would be willing to endure any affliction with unmurmuring patience if she only knows that Knoxville suffers a like calamity.

As soon as the average Chattanoogaian heard there was smallpox at Knoxville he was ready to say: "Now bring on all the smallpox in the country. I don't care. I wouldn't mind having a case of it, myself—Knoxville has it—and that's all I care for!"

We propose to show that true politics is business.

The business features of politics have been more and more ignored, year after year, until they are seldom mentioned now.

The reason is, personalities, ridicule, anecdotes and abuse give more pleasure to a mixed political audience.

But the politics of business would give more money to our pockets, if we would only think more of them and act more on them.

STALWARTISM and half-breedism are exotics: they do not belong to the climate of East Tennessee. We have always opposed their introduction here. We shall continue to oppose them.

And any man who says that we ever took any stock in stalwartism must get his information from a man who deals in fiction.

We can take the files of the REPUBLICAN, and show whole columns of editorial opposition to stalwartism.

But neither do we take any stock in half-breedism.

The only issue we have an affection for is—Republicanism—and that has our whole heart.

ABOUT 25 out of the 33 members of our State Senate have aspirations for the Speakership.

They have four reasons for this:

1st. They think themselves competent.

2d. They say their District is entitled to it this time.

3d. The pay is two dollars a day, extra.

4th. Bate may be elected United States Senator, and then the Speaker will become Governor.

We think the last two reasons are the real ones.

The eight who don't want the Speakership are all Republicans.

And the reason they don't want it is—they can't get it.

A MASSACHUSETTS Republican told his wife that if Massachusetts went Democratic he should leave the State.

On the morning of the election, he found his wife up early and packing her trunk.

"What's the matter?" he inquired, with astonishment.

"Massachusetts has gone Democratic, and you know we are to leave the State."

"Give me the paper and let me see it."

And he took the paper and saw how the whole country had gone Democratic.

"Wife, stop that packing, and get us some breakfast. No use to talk of moving—there's no place to move to!"

Our Democratic friends are very uneasy for fear that the hot-heads and blind zealots in their party will commit such blunders as will disgust all cool-headed people.

The fears are well founded. The counting-out of Chalmers was a most flagrant outrage. And now they are trying to count Kellogg out in Louisiana.

The Pioneers, commenting on the withholding of Kellogg's certificate by the Governor, says:

"In reality, we suppose nobody seriously doubts either that Kellogg is a citizen of this State, or that he was duly elected by the voters of the third district. Every attempt to defeat the will of the people by legal subtleties and flimsy pretenses, is a blow at the popularity and a stain upon the honor of the party which makes it."

NEW ORLEANS.

Kellogg Fighting Bravely for His Seat.

Democrats Trying to Defraud Him Out of It.

More Democratic Blunders.

NEW ORLEANS, December 2.—The brief has been prepared on the law and the facts in the case of the Congressman's election from the Third District by Messrs. A. H. Leonard, United States Attorney, and W. B. Merchant, in which it is mentioned: First, that Congress is exclusive judge of the qualifications of its members, and that the Governor of the State cannot inquire into or pass upon the question of eligibility of a candidate elected to the House of Representatives.

Second, that the election laws of Louisiana do not authorize the Governor of the State to do anything more than complete the returns of elections transmitted from the various parishes and thus ascertain the number of votes cast as shown by the returns, and certify as to the results.

Third, that Kellogg was at the time of his election an inhabitant, resident and citizen of the parish of Iberia, in the third Congressional district of Louisiana.

Fourth, that any inhabitant of the State is eligible to represent in Congress any district of the State.

Fifth, that Kellogg resided permanently in New Orleans from 1865 to 1868, was then elected to and served four years in the United States Senate, and resigning his seat in the Senate, became a candidate for and was elected Governor of Louisiana, resided continuously at the capital of the State during his four years term of office, and immediately thereafter was chosen again United States Senator from Louisiana, and is now filling an unexpired term; that his domicile and citizenship acquired in Louisiana is not lost by his absence from the State while United States Senator, the Civil Code of Louisiana expressly so providing.

The decision of the Supreme Court of Louisiana is cited to the following effect: That a citizen of the State elected to the United States Senate, who from the Senate passed to the Cabinet of the President, and from the Cabinet became a minister, did not lose his citizenship in Louisiana, although continuously absent from the State from the time of his election to the Senate.

FRANK FRAYNE ACQUITTED.

But Then His Lady Love is Dead all the Same, and by His Hands.

CINCINNATI, December 2.—Frank Frayne was before the court to-day on the charge of manslaughter. The shooting was established, and admitted, and Frayne testified that it was due to the wearing out or breaking of the thread in a screw in the breech of his gun. The screw was blown out, the barrel dropped and the bullet dropped six inches below its aim.

The prosecution here rested, and claimed that the charge of manslaughter should be sustained by the statute which forbids any one to point a loaded gun at or toward another person.

The counsel for Frayne claimed that the statute did not apply, as the gun was not pointed at the deceased, but at an apple six inches above her head. He suggested also that Frayne had already suffered the worst that could happen to any one. That no punishment which the law could or might impose could give greater weight to the lesson of this accident.

Judge Higley leaned to the opinion that the statute was not disobeyed in this case, because the gun was aimed at an object, and not the person. He said the testimony clearly showed that there was not the slightest criminal intent, and that the Fraynes should be discharged. This announcement was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

RAILROADING LIVELY.

Another Collision.

CINCINNATI, December 2.—An accident occurred on the Kentucky Central Railroad last night, caused by an attempt of a freight train, which was several hours late, to reach Catwala, the next station north of Falmouth, before the express train should arrive. Four miles north of Falmouth the two trains met. Wm. Gray, fireman of the passenger train, was killed; Isaac Ackley, engineer, severely injured; George Kennedy, brakeman, severely injured; Levi Kirby, engineer on the freight train, injured slightly; Luther Van Hook, of Chattanooga, Ky., passenger, also slightly injured. Both engines and five cars are wrecked.

OVER AN EMBANKMENT.

Serious Railroad Accident in West Tennessee.

NEW ORLEANS, December 2.—The Evening Post has a special from Paducah, Ky., which says: A broken rail on the Paducah and Memphis Railroad yesterday threw a coach and sleeper down a twenty foot embankment at Tipton, Tenn. Thirty passengers were injured, but none seriously.

Re-elected.

COLUMBIA, S. C., December 2.—Hon. T. B. Krasz was re-elected Judge of the Third District for four years, from December 4th. The present Board of Teachers and Directors of the penitentiary were also re-elected.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTIONS.

Democratic Majority Only 443.

RALEIGH, N. C., December 2.—The State board of canvassers to-day finished canvassing the votes for district Congressmen, awarding certificates to Poole, Republican; O'Hara, Republican; Green, Cox, Soules, Dowd, Vance, Democrats, and York, Coalitionist and Independent Democrat. Robbins, Democrat, filed papers looking to contest York's seat. The board did not conclude canvassing the vote for Congressman-at-large, there being no lawful returns from Watauga County, but adjourned until December 19th, in order to allow the vote of that county to be received. The vote for Congressman-at-large is: Bennett, Democrat, 111,098; Dockery, Republican, 110,697. The Watauga County vote will increase Bennett's majority to 443.

POOR ARABI PASHA.

He Fought for His Country, But May Have to Die For It.

CAIRO, December 2.—The court martial to try Arabi Pasha and the other rebel leaders, has been summoned to assemble to-morrow morning. Representatives of the press, and the general public will be permitted to attend the proceedings, although secrecy is observed by the officials in regard to the court martial. There is no doubt that it has been a motion to meet to-morrow in consequence of an understanding between Lord Dufferin, of the Egyptian government, and the counsel for the defense. The proceedings will be a mere formality, and will occupy only one day, as both the form of procedure and the judgment have already been arranged.

RAILROAD WAR CONTINUES.

But no Honest Man Hurt, as far as Heard From.

CHICAGO, December 2.—At a full meeting of the representatives of the warring railroads here to-day, and which lasted over two hours, it was decided to adjourn to New York, December 8th. As nearly as can be ascertained from those who attended the meeting, nothing was accomplished towards healing the strife, matters remaining at the close of the conference as they stood at the beginning.

The representatives of the various roads were very decided in the presentation of their cases, and there was no indication of weakening in the stand taken by any of the various roads.

BLOWN UP!

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., December 2.—The boiler of the steamer Volusia exploded at one o'clock this afternoon, while lying at her wharf. The vessel was loaded with freight for up the river. The steamer and cargo are a total loss. A few persons were slightly injured. The vessel was valued at $6,000.

Receipts of cotton at all interior towns, 1,699,001 bales; receipts from plantations, 271,622 bales; crop in sight, 2,864,409 bales.

McDonald, and had a crew of eight men, who are lost. Two bodies, one of which is supposed to be that of the captain, were washed to the shore to-day. The Folger was a large three-masted schooner.

MORE DEMOCRATIC FRAUDS.

Forgery of Assessment Lists in Virginia.

Guilty Democrats Bound to Court.

RICHMOND, VA., December 2.—United States Commissioner Pleasant to-day sent Wm. H. Talman before the grand jury of the United States Court, which meets on Monday, on the charge of violation of the Federal election laws. Talman's alleged offense is forgery, in connection with the supplemental assessment lists, for the purpose of procuring votes at the recent election. This is the first case decided of parties connected with the Commission of Revenue office arrested for similar irregularities. All of these parties are Democrats, and of the voters whose names they are charged with forging to the assessment lists are also Democrats. It is claimed that it is not so much the act of signing the names of these men as it is the fact that the negroes had not the same opportunity of having themselves assessed, that has started this prosecution—that very act being looked upon as an obstruction of the voters, and consequently a violation of the United States election laws. Commissioner Pleasant has just concluded the case of two others—H. W. Wilkins and Edgley Gray—and also sent them to the grand jury on the same charge. He has admitted all three to bail in $1,000 each.

STOCK TO THE SOUTH.

An Unprecedented Dullness Pervading the Market.

The stock market this season has proven duller and has manifested less animation than for the past five or six years. November usually is the busy month, and last year the Union stock yards could hardly accommodate the enormous amounts of stock that reached here daily. From fifteen to twenty car loads of mules would pass through daily for the Southern markets, and also large numbers of horses.

On one day last year 66 car loads of mules passed through the city. During November this year less than one-fourth the business of last year was done, and the average number of car-loads of mules, horses, cattle and hogs would not exceed six daily. The mules are from Indiana and Kentucky and are shipped to Atlanta, Montgomery and other Southern cities. The cattle and hogs are chiefly from Middle Tennessee and are shipped to Virginia, from 75 to 100 cattle and 100 to 150 hogs pass through the city daily.

The mule market is flat. There is scarcely any demand, and for the first time in years they have proven a drug on the market. During the past two weeks they have declined from $10 to $15 per head, and good teams which formerly sold at $250 to $300, now find no purchase at $200.—Chattanooga Times.

NEW YORK, December 1.—Speculation on stock exchange to-day has been dull and irregular, but the closing quotations generally lower than those of yesterday.
